

TOM EDISON, NEW U. S. NAVAL EXPERT, ON BOARD BATTLESHIP

WILLIAM WOOD BAKER

Thomas A. Edison, newly appointed head of the Naval Bureau of Inventions and Development. This photo was made aboard the U. S. S. New York. From left to right are, Admiral Fletcher, Mrs. Daniels, Secretary of Navy Daniels and Thomas A. Edison.

WANT FULL ACCOUNTING OF ALL EXPENDED SUMS

Springfield, Ill., July 15.—Restitution of all sums expended by the state treasurer and state auditor in honoring warrants on legislative appropriations questioned by J. B. Fergus of Chicago, and demanded in amended bill for injunction received by Fergus' local attorneys Wednesday.

The amended bill will be filed tomorrow. It makes State Auditor Brady and Secretary of State Stevenson codefendants with State Treasurer Russel and demands strict accounting of all sums expended for several years.